Music of Szymanowski

Katowice – since 2015 a UNESCO Creative City of Music – in September 2018 will host the Karol Szymanowski International Music Competition. The event is an opportunity to celebrate the composer and to promote his legacy. The competition is open to pianists, who can apply individually or as a piano duo. The winners will receive cash prizes and the opportunity to perform at the festival. The event will also feature a concert dedicated to the life and work of Karol Szymanowski.

Krzysztof Penderecki, an influential Polish composer and conductor, will be a guest at the festival. Penderecki’s music has been performed around the world, and he is known for his innovative approach to composition. He will conduct the Naxos Symphony Orchestra, which will perform his work at the festival.

In addition to Penderecki, the festival will feature a range of other events, including concerts, masterclasses, and workshops. The event aims to promote Polish music and culture, and to foster international collaboration among musicians.

The festival will be held in Katowice, a city in southwestern Poland. Katowice is home to a vibrant music scene, with a number of music schools and orchestras. The city is also known for its cultural events, including the annual Katowice Music Festival.

The festival is organized by the Katowice Music Festival, which was founded in 1961. The festival is supported by the Polish National Radio Symphony Orchestra, which will perform at the festival.

The event is open to the public, and tickets can be purchased online. The festival is scheduled for September 2018. For more information about the festival, visit the official website.
